

Visit Merri Creek!

Book a parkland safari eco-tour
in Fawkner with
Merri Creek Management Committee

All tours are free and include:

- Free bus to pick you up at CB Smith Reserve or other Fawkner point
- Free refreshments (biscuits, tea/coffee and fruit)
- Free guides

*Social Butterflies on Safari
Fawkner Community House*

Plan a trip...

Talk to your friends to arrange a group and a preferred time. We sort out the bus

Call Megan or Dimi at Merri Creek Management Committee:

Ph: 9380 8199
Fax 9380 6989
Email brian@mcmc.org.au
dimi@mcmc.org.au

Why are we doing this?

MCMC is non-profit environmental conservation organisation. MCMC staff work with the community to connect people to their local environment.

Northern Nature - Creek Connections

Communities caring for the environment of the Moonee Ponds, Merri and Darebin Creeks

Free Fawkner Parkland Safari Eco-tour

2008

Discover Merri Creek's parkland treasures

Glenroy View Club on a Fawkner Safari

What do people say?

"This is so interesting and important - you should tell everyone about this!"

Antionetta from Fawkner Community House Cooking Group

"Remember girls, that spot (near the escarpment) for when we come hiking down here."

"We used to walk across there - it was paddocks."

The Social Butterflies

*Social Butterflies ready to go on Safari,
Fawkner Community House*

You'll see, hear about and share...

Stories about creek plants, birds, butterflies and insects

History Inspect drystone walls made by early settlers, discover Aboriginal food plants

Experience the astonishing difference made by twenty years of environmental restoration

Knowledge about Fawkner's volcanic history

Women's ESL Class Fawkner Community House planting in Fawkner

What should I expect?

The tour will take about 2 hours.

It is not strenuous - we stop for short strolls close to the bus on flat areas.

Maximum size of group is 10

Wear flat walking shoes, hat and sensible clothes for a park outing.

*Fawkner Cooking Group on safari,
Fawkner Community House*